- Arrive promptly, and clock out only once all tasks are complete and no assistance is needed at the Upper Lodge (check in with manager)
- Communicate effectively with co-workers and customers, ideally with a friendly demeanor
- Understand proper walkie-talkie protocols
- Possess in depth food safety knowledge (e.g. preparing RTE and raw foods, holding temperatures, proper cooling, etc.)
- Adhere to FIFO (First In, First Out), consolidate ingredients, and label and date items daily
- Prepare a variety of toppings, dough, sauce, and shred cheese
- Maintain a clean and organized station throughout the shift
- Dispose of grease and oil properly (after preparing sausage)
- Monitor food levels and replenish ingredients as needed during service
- Assist with order lists and inventory
- Perform tasks such as helping out with dishes or other kitchen duties as needed

• Proactively prep for the following day
• Ensure any needed supplies are gathered before going up the lift
• Perform any tasks as directed by the manager
• When assuming the lead, delegate, train, re-train, and coordinate breaks
• Complete all online training assigned by manager (STAR)
• Assist with safety meetings weekly or bi-weekly. If unable to attend, it is the employee's responsibility to review the material thoroughly
• Follow the dress code: long hair pulled back, nails trimmed, clean uniform shirt, non-slip shoes, and a name tag
• Maintain proper hygiene: frequent hand washing (after eating, smoking, or using the restroom)
